

E. FAXON BISHOP DOUBTS RETURN OF FORMER DUTY

President of C. Brewer & Co. Thinks That Present Tariff Will Be Retained

"You are probably as well posted on the subject as I am," E. Faxon Bishop said this morning in reply to a question about the prospects of prompt action by Congress on the sugar duty. The president of C. Brewer & Co., Ltd., had just reached his office after returning from the mainland in the Matsonia.

"There appeared to be a general belief that the recommendation of Secretary McAdoo for retention of the sugar tariff would be adopted," Mr. Bishop continued. "I heard little talk to the contrary. I suppose we shall have a further line on the matter this afternoon."

"It is very doubtful if there will be an attempt to go beyond the continuance of the present duty and restore the Payne-Aldrich sugar schedule, and I don't think it would be a good thing, anyway—I consider it would be a mistake."

"Action on the tariff will probably depend on the Democratic caucus. It is impossible to say how the Republicans will act. They may attempt to get other things outside of the promised modifications. Nobody over there seemed to know what might develop in Congress."

"So far it is all Wilson," Bishop said. "No, I did not notice any warning up for the presidential campaign. So far it is all Wilson-on the Democratic side. There is a general sentiment that Wilson's policies have had a tendency to keep us out of war, but outside of that there is not much said about him."

"I was unable to go East with the rest of the committee to make the new selling contracts for Hawaiian sugar. The contracts are substantially the same in terms as the one we have had with the American Sugar Refining Company."

Mr. Bishop did not care to say anything about the estate of his late uncle, Hon. C. R. Bishop, as he is personally interested, and besides, the matter is still pending in probate. However, he confirmed the published statement that the estate was not so large as people during the eminent capitalist's life had imagined, a large proportion of it having been disposed of prior to his death upon benevolent objects. "The estate will be comparatively small," was all that Mr. Bishop would say.

favorable position in regard to its lands, but there is going to be relief legislation enacted at this session of Congress which will be advantageous to the oil industry generally throughout California. DEMOCRATS IN CONGRESS HAVE MAJORITY OF 24 icans of the "old guard" who went down in defeat three years ago only to be returned to the lower house over Democratic opponents last fall, formed an interesting group. Joseph G. Cannon, former Speaker of the House, and now well on toward 80 years of age, stood out prominently. If he finishes his present term he will have served 40 years in Congress, eight years as Speaker. Other Republicans who remained at home during the last Congress to reappear now were Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, William B. McKinley, W. A. Rodenberg, William W. Wilson, George E. Foss, John A. Sterling and Charles E. Fuller of Illinois; Ebenezer Hill of Connecticut; Cyrus A. Sulloway of New Hampshire; and Benjamin K. Poeh of Pennsylvania. Meyer London, the first Socialist elected to Congress from New York, attracted much attention. Senate proceedings always are quieter than those in the House. As striking as the return of old faces to the House was the absence of familiar countenances in the Senate.

Senators Root of New York, Burton of Ohio, Bristow of Kansas, Crawford of South Dakota, Perkins of California and Stephenson of Wisconsin were missing from the Republican side. Democratic ranks missed Thornton of Louisiana, White of Alabama and Camden of Kentucky. The first business was swearing in the new senators. Most of them already are well known in political circles.

Among the Republicans came James W. Wadsworth of New York, successor to Root, who attracted attention as the youthful speaker of the New York assembly; Charles Curtis of Kansas, who succeeds Bristow; and Warren G. Harding of Ohio, who succeeds Burton.

Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, former majority leader of the House, led the new Democrats. Other Democrats who took the oath were James D. Phelan of California; J. C. W. Beckham of Kentucky; Robert F. Brannard of Louisiana; Edwin S. Johnson of South Dakota and Paul O. Husting of Wisconsin. The Senate now stands, Democrats 56 and Republicans 40.

Today, shortly after noon the House and Senate met in joint session in the hall of the House to hear President Wilson deliver his annual address.

The death of Representative Witherspoon, recently occurring, has reduced the number of House Democrats by one, and reduced the Democratic majority to 24.

HARRISON'S TALK IN 1913 HERE IS RESURRECTED

"For years I have been of the minority in Congress and have seen the Democrats kicked out, trampled upon, and otherwise manhandled by Republicans, so that I must confess it now gives me a saturnine pleasure to see the Democrats in a position to do the same thing to the Republicans. But we must remember that the sole aim of the Democratic party is not that of filling offices but to sum up the principles for which we have been fighting the last 20 years and put them in practice. The summing may hurt some Democrats but that cannot be helped. We must do what we promised to do, otherwise the people will have nothing more to do with us."

The reference to his pleasure in seeing the Republicans will probably be used, it is understood, by the Republicans to show in what spirit he went to the Philippines. He is being attacked as having disorganized the public service badly.

HOSPITALS FOR DIAGNOSIS ONLY, SAYS DR. MAY

CHICAGO, Ill. — The day of the "temperature-taking, pulse-feeling physician is past and in their stead will spring hospitals for diagnostic purposes alone," Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., said in addressing the Chicago Medical society. "Hospitals soon will be established," Dr. Mayo said, "where the country physicians may send their cases which seem baffling, for diagnosis. The patient will remain in the hospital only long enough for trained specialists to determine the nature of the malady, when he will return to his own physician. Full directions will be supplied, indicating the method of treatment to be followed."

FROM YESTERDAY'S LAST EDITION

WUDAN NO MORE ANARCHIST THAN WASHINGTON WAS

At the preliminary hearing in the case of Col. Gen. D. J. Wudan at the immigration station this morning, Harry Brown, who conducted the case for the prosecution, asked Gen. Wudan questions regarding the publication of an article in a Chinese magazine stating that Wudan was opposed to all forms of government, and further stated that the local Chinese had used the word "decapitated" in connection with the advocacy of the overthrow of Yuan Shih-Kai.

R. W. Breckons conducted the case for the defense, and their point was that the interpretation of the character has many meanings and that the character used by Wudan in a speech published in the Chinese magazine meant the "overthrow" and not decapitation. The ultimate translation of the character will be made by translators in Washington.

Col. Gen. Wudan said that his attitude against Yuan Shih-Kai was no different than the attitude taken by Washington against King George, and was the same as the Republican leaders take against the Wilson administration. In connection, Wudan stated that figures of speech are used the same in English and in Chinese, and that his expression meant to overthrow the present form of government and substitute another form.

At the time of the hearing it was announced that a number of Chinese in the city had signed a petition and forwarded it to the Department of Labor in Washington urging the United States to consider the question as an international one and not as a fight against Wudan. The petition stated that the opposition party wanted the United States to take some part in the case, rendering a final decision in the matter, and stated that those opposed to the National party were only using Wudan as a "cat's paw."

Col. Gen. Wudan's hearing is on a charge of being an anarchist. If found guilty he may be deported and so come within reach of Yuan Shih-Kai's officers.

NO NON-MEMBERS PLAY ON GUARD FOOTBALL TEAM

When asked this afternoon regarding the statement that three of the players who were playing on the National Guard football team were not members of the guard, Fred Wichman, the manager of the eleven, said, "I would be very pleased to show anyone the enlistment papers of all players who have participated in football this year with our team. It is strange how the statement came out, and there is absolutely no truth to the statement whatever. We will be pleased to show the enlistment papers of Peden, Austin and Moore at any time."

The report was first started by an official who was at the last game, but who the official is cannot be ascertained at present. When the National Guard first entered the field, it was stated that all players were members of the organization, and as Moore, Austin and Peden were among the first players to come out for the team, it is hardly possible that there could be any ringers on the team. Members of the National Guard interviewed in the matter stated that the three players are members. So that perhaps ends the matter.

Learning of Islands at First Hand

Fred J. Halton, new San Francisco representative of the Hawaii Promotion Committee.

Fred J. Halton, San Francisco representative of the Promotion Committee, will leave for San Francisco on December 15, and will take up his new work immediately upon his arrival there. Mr. Halton arrived here today from Maui and will go from here to Kaula. He has been making a thorough study of points of interest in the islands, and will be ready to take up the work with a thorough knowledge of Hawaii's attractions.

Mr. Halton was connected with the Pacific Mail for a number of years and has a large acquaintance among travelers and steamship men all over the United States. He has been an active booster, and has many unique ideas for advertising Hawaii. His work with the Pacific Mail has given him a knowledge of conditions that will be of benefit to Hawaii, as he has strong connections on the mainland and in the Orient.

Albert P. Taylor, director of the Promotion Committee, said: "The committee might have been able to select a man who knew more about the conditions in Hawaii, but then again the man we might have selected would have been lost in making a campaign of publicity among the passenger men and others on the mainland. Mr. Halton has a thorough acquaintance with the situation, and his ideas on the advertising features for Hawaii show that he knows the game."

Earl Kitchener, in conversation with Greek officials in his recent visit to Athens, is reported to have declared that England will have by next March 4,000,000 soldiers under arms and will be in a position to arm and provision 6,000,000 Russians, and that consequently it would show great stupidity to think the war would end otherwise than in complete defeat for Germany.
